

Places I Camped in 2023

Over the past year, I camped 53 nights at 13 different locations in 3 states.

In recent years, I've been prioritizing campsites closer to home that require less lengthy road trips, though as you can see one and while I like more distant road trip.

I also try to stay the maximum amount of time at each site to avoid time taking down and setting up, and doing more trips based out of one site, especially hiking and biking.

As you can see from this map, there are many areas unexplored this year. I should consider in the upcoming year heading back to Green Mountain National Forest, the Western Catskills, Western New York and the Allegheny National Forest.
