

A detailed topographic map of the Schoharie Creek Watershed. The map is rendered in shades of green, with darker tones indicating higher elevations and lighter tones for lower areas. The Schoharie Creek is highlighted in a bright cyan color, showing its complex network of tributaries. Numerous smaller streams and creeks are labeled in white text, including names like 'Wiley Creek', 'Schoharie Creek', 'Bear Kill', and 'Schoharie Brook'. Several ponds and lakes are also labeled, such as 'Engle's Pond', 'Russell Lake', 'Schoharie Reservoir', 'Mayhem Pond', 'Silver Lake', and 'Lake Erie Van Winkle'. The terrain is rugged, with many ridges and valleys visible. The map is oriented with North at the top.

Schoharie Creek Watershed

National Hydrological Dataset
Map by Andy Arthur
December 3, 2025

0 5 10 15 20 mi

A horizontal scale bar with alternating black and white segments, used to indicate distance in miles.